ARTICLE VI PREVENTING AND RESPONDING TO SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Section 6.01 Statement of Purpose

We believe that Scripture and our faith in Jesus Christ call us to standards of responsible conduct in all of life, including sexual behavior. Human sexuality is an integral part of who we are as persons. However, it can become the basis for oppression, where trust relationships are breached and persons are abused. Sexual misconduct is a violation not only of the principles set forth in Scripture, but also of the ministerial employment and professional relationship, and as such is never permissible.

Section 6.02 Prohibition of Sexual Misconduct

The Presbytery of the Miami Valley forbids all forms of sexual abuse, sexual harassment, and sexual malfeasance.

The Presbytery of the Miami Valley will not tolerate sexual misconduct, including but not limited to sexual abuse, sexual harassment, and sexual malfeasance by its teaching elders, pastors, church professionals, or any person carrying out the programs of the Presbytery. Presbytery will impose just and stringent consequences in proven cases of sexual misconduct as provided by the Rules of Discipline, the Standards of Ethical Conduct of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) and the policies of the Presbytery.

This policy is intended to apply to and govern the conduct of teaching elders who are members of the Presbytery of the Miami Valley; commissioned ruling elders serving at the direction of the Presbytery of the Miami Valley; Certified Christian Educators serving within the Presbytery of the Miami Valley; employees, officers and agents of the Presbytery of the Miami Valley; and any other persons working for the Presbytery in connection with any of its programs, ministries, organizations or activities.

Church members fall under the jurisdiction and care of their individual sessions.

In addition to proceedings under the Rules of Discipline and this or other policies of the Presbytery of the Miami Valley, employees of the Presbytery working in any of its programs, ministries, organizations or activities who engage in sexual misconduct shall be subject to discipline, up to and including termination of their employment.

Non-Presbyterian employees and volunteers working for the Presbytery are not subject to disciplinary proceedings under the Rules of Discipline, but in all other respects are covered by this policy.

Whenever an allegation of sexual misconduct under this policy is received about a member of a church of the Presbytery, then in addition to the other procedures called for by this policy in response to such complaints, the Pastor of the member's church will be notified of the complaint. Any Session may choose to refer a case to Presbytery (D-12.000).

Section 6.03 Definitions of Sexual Misconduct

Sexual misconduct is a comprehensive term that includes but is not limited to sexual abuse, sexual harassment, and sexual malfeasance.

1. Sexual Abuse:

Includes, but is not limited to:

- a. Any sexual acts or sexual contact by coercion, force, violence, intimidation; or any sexual act or contact that may be prohibited by the laws of the State of Ohio; or,
- b. Any contact or interaction between a minor or a vulnerable adult as defined by the laws of the State of Ohio and an adult when the minor or vulnerable adult is being used for the sexual gratification of the adult person or of a third person. Sexual abuse may or may not involve touching. Sexual behavior including, but not limited to, physical contact, sexually provocative communications as defined below, and any form of sexual relationship between a minor or a vulnerable adult and an adult is always considered forced whether or not the behavior is consented to by the minor or the vulnerable adult.

2. Sexual Harassment:

Sexual harassment is defined by law in the employment context as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when one or more of the following occur:

- a. Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment;
- b. Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual;
- c. Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance by creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.

3. Sexual Malfeasance:

Sexual Malfeasance occurs whenever a person in a position of trust engages in a sexual act or sexual contact with another person to whom he or she owes a professional responsibility of care and trust. Such abuse includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- a. Physical sexual contact and sexual relationships between individuals within a pastoral, ministerial, ecclesial, employment or other relationship within the context of church life. Such contact and such relationships are not acceptable even when consensual, and regardless of whether pastoral care is involved. The inherent imbalance of power between ministers and lay people or staff undermines the validity of such consent.
- b. Sexually provocative communications in any form including, but not limited to:
 - sexually oriented jokes or humor;
 - sexually demeaning comments;
 - verbal or non-verbal suggestions of sexual involvement or sexual activity;
 - questions or comments about sexual behavior;
 - unwelcome or inappropriate physical contact;
 - graphic or degrading comments about an individual's physical appearance;
 - express or implied sexual advances or propositions;

elders serving at the direction of the Presbytery of the Miami Valley; Certified Christian Educators serving within the Presbytery of the Miami Valley; employees, officers and agents of the Presbytery of the Miami Valley; and any other persons working for the Presbytery in connection with any of its programs, ministries, organizations or activities whether paid or unpaid, are required to attend a training workshop which the presbytery will provide. Those called/employed at the time this policy is adopted by the presbytery are required to attend the training within one year of the adoption of the policy. Failure to attend the required workshop will result in direct contact with the member/employee and the appropriate calling/employing entity to achieve compliance with this requirement. Teaching elder members of Presbytery, Certified Christian Educators, and commissioned ruling elders that fail to fulfill this requirement will be reported in the next Presbytery docket and shall remain on notice until they have fulfilled their requirement. Additionally, the Executive Presbyter and the Stated Clerk shall not certify any teaching elder members of Presbytery, Certified Christian Educators, or commissioned ruling elders for service in another Presbytery or for posting on the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) job search databases until such requirements have been fulfilled.

All teaching elder members of the Presbytery, commissioned ruling elders, Certified Christian Educators seeking to serve within the presbytery, and staff of Presbytery, prior to beginning their duties within the Presbytery, or for those who are not serving in an installed or appointed position prior to being received into membership by the Presbytery, shall be required to submit to and satisfactorily complete a background investigation as required by the Presbytery's criminal background investigation policy.

Section 6.05 Care for Persons Affected by Sexual Misconduct

1. Victims of Sexual Misconduct and Their Families:

The Presbytery and Response Taskforce (Section 6.07) shall offer pastoral care and support for victims of sexual misconduct, their families, and the congregations of the Presbytery of the Miami Valley. Feelings of guilt, shame, anger, mistrust, lowered self-esteem, unworthiness, and feelings of alienation from God, self, the religious community and family are frequent injuries suffered by victims of sexual misconduct. It is important for all involved to be sensitive to the pain and need for healing experienced by the alleged victims and their families, and to act by making appropriate pastoral care available.

The extent of the damage will vary from person to person, being influenced by such factors as the degree or severity of abuse, the age and emotional condition of the victim, personality dynamics, and the importance of religious faith to the individuals affected. If the alleged victims and families decline at first, help will continue to be available from the Presbytery and the Response Taskforce.

2. Congregation or Employing Entity:

The Presbytery and Response Taskforce should be aware of the problems a congregation or employing entity may experience resulting from allegations of sexual misconduct by a minister, employee, or volunteer. The allegations may polarize the congregation or organization, damage morale, and create serious internal problems. Efforts should be made to recognize and identify any problems or damage done to the congregation or organization and seek to provide appropriate pastoral care or other needed assistance.

3. Accused and her or his Family:

The Presbytery and Response Taskforce will offer pastoral care for the accused and the immediate family of the accused, and may recommend further treatment, when deemed appropriate. If the accused is under presbytery authority, the selection and approval of treatment, who shall receive it, its monitoring, and its financing is under the supervision of the Executive Presbyter and Committee on Ministry (COM) chair or a person designated by them.

4. Non-Victim Accusers

The non-victim accuser may be an adult bringing a complaint on behalf of another adult who has been an alleged victim of sexual misconduct.

The non-victim accuser may also be the parent, guardian, or other advocate for a child who has been the alleged victim of sexual misconduct. Known or suspected physical, sexual, or emotional offenses involving children are to be reported to appropriate law enforcement and child welfare authorities immediately.

Section 6.06 Process for Reporting Sexual Misconduct

These individuals shall contact each other after learning of an incident and shall proceed immediately to notify the Response Taskforce coordinator who shall then contact the alleged victim to determine what further action is necessary. Upon receiving a report the Moderator of the Presbytery, Executive Presbyter, the Chair of the Committee on Ministry, or the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery may draft her or his own written complaint regardless of whether the alleged victim chooses to draft a complaint.

At any point when an accuser submits a written allegation to the Stated Clerk, the disciplinary procedures outlined in Chapter 10 of the Rules of Discipline of the Book of Order will control the response of the Presbytery.

2. Filing for a Child

In the case of alleged sexual misconduct toward a child, a parent or adult acting on behalf of the child may contact either the Executive Presbyter or chair of COM who shall then contact the civil authorities immediately. The Executive Presbyter or COM chair shall determine if judicial action is appropriate and/or if the Response Taskforce shall be utilized.

3. Third Party Information

If a third party has information relevant to an incident of alleged sexual misconduct, either the Executive Presbyter or COM chair should be contacted. If a teaching elder who is a member of the Presbytery of the Miami Valley; a commissioned ruling elder serving at the direction of Presbytery of the Miami Valley; a Certified Christian Educator serving within Presbytery of the Miami Valley; an employee, officer or agent of the Presbytery of the Miami Valley; or any other persons working for the Presbytery in connection with any of its programs, ministries, organizations or activities possesses or believes that she or he possesses information that may be relevant to an incident of alleged sexual misconduct, either the Executive Presbyter or COM chair must be contacted and that information must be shared with those individuals and any other individual, commission, or committee that they may designate. The Executive Presbyter or COM chair will then determine whether to contact the victim.

Section 6.07 Response Taskforce

1. Goals

- a. The Response Taskforce will be available to work with all parties concerned in an allegation of sexual misconduct.
- b. The Response Taskforce will lead an ongoing preventative program of continuing education for staff, teaching elders, Certified Christian Educators, commissioned ruling elders, and congregations in the Presbytery.

2. Members

- a. The Response Taskforce shall be a taskforce of COM made up of nine persons appointed by COM in three (3) classes of three (3) years each.
- b. The Response Taskforce shall include persons experienced in related legal, pastoral counseling, pastoral care, conflict resolution, insurance risk management, personnel management, and educational issues.

3. Meetings

- a. The whole Response Taskforce shall meet at appropriate intervals for its own continued learning, group support, and planning for educational events.
- b. Other meetings may be called by the co-chairs at their discretion for dealing with special matters that need to be addressed.

4. Refinement of policy and procedures

This policy document cannot detail all the procedures needed by the Response Taskforce in addressing different kinds of cases. Therefore, the Response Taskforce shall annually evaluate the Presbytery's policy and procedures and recommend needed changes to COM for approval.

5. Procedures for Responding to Allegations of Sexual Misconduct

When arranging to meet with the accuser or the accused, the accuser/alleged victim should be invited to bring a counselor, friend, or advocate to provide support.

6. Responding to the Accuser/Alleged Victim and Family

- a. The Response Taskforce chairs will determine which two Taskforce members will have a first meeting with the accuser. The Response Taskforce members' role is to help clarify options for accusers/alleged victims so they may decide for themselves what they will choose to do.
- b. After the initial meeting with the accuser, the whole Response Taskforce may be convened to discuss the most appropriate response. Additional Taskforce members may be assigned for follow-up with the accuser/alleged victim until the matter is resolved.
- c. The accuser/alleged victim may choose not to submit a written complaint but instead to pursue some alternative method of mediation or resolution. In this situation, the Response Taskforce members assigned to the case may, in consultation with the Executive Presbyter and COM chair, work with the accuser/alleged victim, the accused, and other significant parties involved toward resolution.

7. Responding to the Accused and Family

The Response Taskforce through its co-chairs shall consult with COM chair and the Executive Presbyter to determine what support and resources should be offered to the accused. At a minimum, COM chair and Executive Presbyter will inform the accused in writing of the accusations being made and offer to arrange for one or more person(s) to provide support, as well as make available to the accused a list of counseling if requested. If the accuser files a written complaint with the Stated Clerk, this could be the extent of the services provided. If no written complaint is filed, the Response Taskforce would take the lead in working with both the accuser/alleged victim and the accused to achieve a compassionate and just resolution of the matter.

8. Responding to the Congregation

When a congregation is involved, the Response Taskforce in consultation with COM chair and the Executive Presbyter shall determine when and if it will be helpful to offer the congregation support and/or services. When appropriate, members of the Response Taskforce may be called upon to meet with the Session to advise the congregation on the kind of support and resources that are available and to help the Session plan a response to the situation.

9. Education

- a. The Response Taskforce shall be responsible for planning the sexual misconduct prevention training required for its member Presbytery staff and teaching elders, Certified Christian Educators, commissioned ruling elders, paid and unpaid.
- b. The Response Taskforce shall encourage the congregations of the Presbytery to adopt sexual misconduct policies and shall provide education and support to help them do so.
- c. As part of its educational mission, the Response Taskforce shall develop materials that may be used in congregations to inform members about the Presbytery's sexual misconduct policy and procedures. This information shall include contact names and numbers for the Executive Presbyter, Stated Clerk, and Response Taskforce members.
- d. The Response Taskforce will be available as resource persons who may, at the request of COM and the Executive Presbyter, consult with sessions who are dealing with a sexual misconduct complaint filed by one church member against another.

10. Record Keeping

The Response Taskforce shall keep careful records of its proceedings, including minutes, reports, and correspondence. All official reports and communications relating to a particular case of sexual misconduct shall be forwarded to the Executive Presbyter when the matter is resolved. These confidential files will be securely stored in a manner consistent with applicable law. Members of the Response Taskforce shall keep no separate or duplicate records of material.

11. Time Limits

From the time a person notifies the Executive Presbyter or COM chair of an allegation of sexual misconduct, no longer than seven (7) days should elapse until the accuser and the Response Taskforce hold an initial meeting.

From the date of the initial meeting of the Response Taskforce and the accuser, no longer than twenty-one (21) days should elapse until the Response Taskforce makes a recommendation for the disposition of the allegation.

The entire process, from the presentation of an allegation to a recommended disposition, should take no longer than twenty-eight (28) days.

Section 6.08 Administrative Process

Following an accusation of misconduct against a staff member of the Presbytery of the Miami Valley or a member of the Presbytery of the Miami Valley serving a church or agency, the Response Taskforce or COM shall consult with the accuser, the accused, and the involved Session or board of oversight to ascertain whether the investigation would be aided by the accused being advised to take an administrative leave. The Committee on Ministry or Response Taskforce may also request that an Administrative Commission be appointed to deal with the discord caused by the alleged misconduct.

COM will maintain a list of interim or supply pastors trained in responding to congregations where abuse or allegations of abuse have occurred. COM will also work closely with the Session to recognize and deal with the denial and anger that typically accompany abuse allegations.

Section 6.09 Disciplinary Process

All written allegations of sexual misconduct filed with the Stated Clerk will be investigated through the appropriate process as outlined in the Rules of Discipline of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). In cases in which misconduct is alleged against teaching elder members of presbytery, Certified Christian Educators, members of the Presbytery staff and commissioned ruling elders serving under the jurisdiction of the Presbytery of the Miami Valley, the disciplinary process as provided in the Rules of Discipline will be followed. In cases involving employees, the provision of the personnel policy will be followed. For employees who are members of the Presbytery of the Miami Valley, both personnel policy provisions and the disciplinary process will apply. For volunteers who are working with the Presbytery of the Miami Valley, they may be removed from their volunteer positions if deemed necessary.

ARTICLE VII
ANONYMOUS COMMUNICATIONS POLICY
(Added 02/09/2013)

Section 7.01 Statement of Purpose

God sends the church in the power of the Holy Spirit to share with Christ in establishing God's just, peaceable, and loving rule in the world. God's reconciliation in Jesus Christ is the ground of justice and peace. The church in worship proclaims, receives, and enacts reconciliation in Jesus Christ and commits itself to strive for justice and peace in its own life and in the world.

(Former Book of Order, W-7.4001; see now W-5.0204)

The church is called by Christ to be an agent of reconciliation. Individuals bringing allegations or accusations under cloaks of anonymity work directly against this call, because reconciliation, when concerned with others, can never be a unilateral action.

Anonymity precludes seeking redress or agreement, but rather fosters division as it allows neither substantiation nor attribution. Without these, there cannot be any sense of procedural integrity, the absence of which is an affront to our polity.

Section 7.02 Scope

The Presbytery of Miami Valley does not consider information of any kind that is offered anonymously. This includes telephone calls, emails and letters. This does not mean that conversations or communications are not private nor does it mean that information, where necessary, is not kept in confidence. This policy concerns information for which there is no verifiable attribution.

1. Telephone Communications:
 - a. Calls from unidentified persons will either not be passed through or will be disconnected.
 - b. Unidentified voice-mail messages will be deleted.

2. Mail

- a. All mail bearing no return address will be opened by the Office Manager of the Presbytery of the Miami Valley.
- b. The Office Manager will briefly scan the contents to determine if indeed the suspicion of anonymity is correct.
- c. Letters determined to be anonymous will be shredded immediately.

Section 7.03 Exceptions

This policy does not apply to information received in which or for which there is sufficient factual evidence to warrant further action.

Section 7.04 Application

This policy extends to all Committees, Commissions, Networks, Task Forces and Work Groups within the presbytery.

ARTICLE VIII CHILD AND YOUTH PROTECTION POLICY (Added 11/12/16)

Section 8.01 Statement of Purpose

As Scripture tells us, “Children are a heritage from the Lord” (Psalms 127:3). The covenant of baptism unites all Christians in a commitment to care for and nurture our children. Recognizing that nurturing and protecting children and young people is paramount, the Presbytery of the Miami Valley (“the Presbytery”) seeks to provide a safe and secure environment for children and youth who participate in our programs and activities. By implementing the practices in this directive, the Presbytery affirms our goal to protect the children and youth in our care from incidents of misconduct or inappropriate behavior, while at the same time protecting our staff and volunteers from false accusations.

Section 8.02 Applicability

This policy applies to meetings, events or activities that are explicitly sponsored or financially underwritten by the Presbytery and that include or involve children under the age of 18, either as the focus of the event or in a separate child care setting for an adult event. Hereafter in this policy these meetings, events or activities are known as “Event(s).”

They include:

1. Stated or Called Meetings of the Presbytery.
2. Presbytery ordination and installation services and other Presbytery-led or sponsored worship services.
3. Presbytery-led or sponsored workshops, training or education events for children or youth, or for adults when separate child care is provided.
4. Presbytery-led or sponsored youth events irrespective of location; chaperoning of participants in the PC (USA) Youth Triennium; the Presbytery spring youth retreat; and similar events.

Section 8.03 Exclusions

1. Events at which children or youth are present but are constantly under the sole supervision and care of their own parents or legal guardians.
2. Youth events, worship services, education or training events, or meetings at specific churches or groups of churches that do not involve explicit Presbytery sponsorship or funding. Those events and meetings are instead covered by the churches' Child Protection Policies (Book of Order G-3.0106, which requires councils to develop Child Protection Policies applicable to their activities). Promotion of such events on the Presbytery's web site or through other means does not in itself constitute Presbytery sponsorship.

Section 8.04 Authority and Notification

The Designated Official ("the D.O.") of the Presbytery is appointed by the Leadership Council to oversee implementation of this policy. The name and contact information for the D.O is posted on the presbytery web site. The D.O. is tasked with ensuring this policy is adhered to, but also in certain cases with making the policy workable and effective in situations when strict compliance is impossible.

Organizers of events and activities that include children or youth under the age of 18 are responsible for proactively, in advance, notifying the D.O. with key information about the event using Form A or its equivalent. Form A, "Event Form—Child and Youth Protection Policy Applicability," is available on the presbytery web site (www.miamipresbytery.org) under the Clerk's Corner, or from the D.O. The D.O. will then identify which of these events or activities are subject to this policy and advise organizers what actions are necessary to carry out this policy. The D.O. will document those actions for each Event.

Section 8.05 Standards of Conduct

No harmful or diminishing behavior towards children or youth (including physical, emotional, sexual harm or abuse) is tolerated at Presbytery Events. Paid or volunteer leaders shall not touch or interact with children or youth in any way that is sexually stimulating, emotionally demeaning, or exploitative. Common expressions of affection and affirmation (hugs and pats on the back) or physical care (diaper changes or first aid) are appropriate in this or any community of caring Christians. Staff and volunteers must be careful that physical expressions of affection are not excessive or imposed upon another individual. A specific list of prohibited and allowed behaviors is included in Section 8.10 of this policy.

Section 8.06 Rule of Three and Other Leader Ratios

Paid and volunteer leaders working with children and youth are tasked with guarding the physical and emotional safety of those in their care and to be aware of signs indicating neglect of the child's well-being. Situations in which one unrelated adult and one child/youth are alone should be avoided, and are always subject to the standards in Section 8.10, Prohibited Acts. Whenever practical, at least three people (two adults and one child/youth or if necessary one adult and two children/youth) should be present.

1. The normal practice is to have at least two adult leaders/chaperones present for any activity and such additional adult volunteers as are required to provide adequate supervision and care appropriate to the number of children participating. Normally those leaders will be at least three years older than the oldest child or youth supervised. If it is impractical to have more than one adult constantly present, the Event Organizer is responsible for arranging for another adult to check in periodically on the child care setting to ensure appropriate protection standards are being maintained.
2. Staff and volunteers shall transport children and youth in groups rather than alone. In ordinary circumstances, an unaccompanied adult should not drive a single child in connection with a Presbytery Event without the permission of the child's parent or guardian.

Variations from the policies above should be discussed with and approved by the Presbytery's D.O. in advance.

Section 8.07 Authorization and Training of Child Care Personnel

1. Authorization through church: When a Presbyterian church hosts an Event within the bounds of Presbytery, and that church has in place and has implemented a Child (and Youth) Protection Policy adopted by its session, that church's policy will apply to the Event unless the terms of this Presbytery policy are more specific or comprehensive, in which case the Presbytery policy will govern. Employees or volunteers who have been authorized, following a formal background check or other approved review process under the church's policy, to work with children and/or youth in the hosting church are normally approved to serve at Events occurring in that church. In that case, the hosting church will submit to the D.O. a completed Form B for each such employee or volunteer who will serve, and provide each employee and volunteer with a copy of the applicable Child (and Youth) Protection Policy. Form B, "Child/Youth Worker Certification Form,” is available on the presbytery web site (www.miamipresbytery.org) under the Clerk’s Corner, or from the D.O.

2. Additional checks: The D.O. will require additional background checks, at the presbytery’s expense, in specific cases when the Presbytery Child and Youth Protection Policy differs from the hosting church’s and so is applicable to the Event, or whenever the D.O. determines that a Presbytery-initiated check is advisable. The checks are provided by the Insurance Board (the Presbytery’s property and liability insurance provider) or other provider authorized by the Presbytery. Among the types of checks the D.O. may require are:
 - a. A basic check that includes a multi-state criminal background check and a national sex offender registry check.
 - b. A motor vehicle records check when applicable to the duties of the individual.

The person to be considered will authorize the additional checks by signing Form C, “Background Check Authorization Form,” available on the presbytery web site (www.miamipresbytery.org) in the Clerk’s Corner or from the D.O.

Where a criminal record exists, the D.O. will consider such factors as the seriousness of the crime; statutes that may legally disqualify the person from working with minors; the length of time since the last offense; any pattern of criminal activity; and activities the applicant has been involved in since the offense(s) occurred. Crimes that are barriers to volunteer work with children are: violent crimes; sexual assault; sexual abuse or neglect of a child; and drug offenses or driving offenses (depending upon position requirements). Convictions, not arrests, are grounds for disqualification.

3. Training: The D.O. may require or encourage any employee or volunteer working with children or youth at an Event to receive training in advance using materials provided by the Armatas abuse prevention training resources of the Insurance Board or other provider authorized by the Presbytery. A list of required or optional trainings is in Section 8.12 of this policy.
4. Supplemental policies: The Presbyterian Youth Connection Network of the Presbytery may adopt standard policies related to child and youth protection that will be applicable to Events they sponsor or financially underwrite. The Presbytery Leadership Council will review and approve such policies both prior to their taking effect and at any subsequent times when the Network proposes substantive changes in those policies.

Section 8.08 Reporting

Any observation or personal knowledge of any violations of this policy at or in connection with an Event must be immediately reported to the person in charge of the Event, the Presbytery’s Executive Presbyter, the Presbytery’s Stated Clerk, the Presbytery's Designated Official, and/or the Presbytery Moderator after the safety of the child, children, or youth is assured. Further processes will be in accord with those in Article VI of the Presbytery's PMV Policy and Practice Manual, related to sexual misconduct.

Section 8.09 Dissemination

This policy will be displayed on the Presbytery web site and be provided annually to churches, sessions, pastors and Christian educators participating in the Presbytery, and to new pastors as they arrive in the Presbytery. There will be annual training on child and youth protection at a presbytery meeting or other presbytery-wide gathering.

Section 8.10 Prohibited Acts

The following acts are prohibited by this Policy and will not be tolerated or accepted during any Presbytery Event. Any observation or personal knowledge of such violations must be immediately reported to the person in charge of the Event, the Presbytery's Executive Presbyter, the Presbytery's Stated Clerk, the Presbytery's Designated Official (D.O.), and/or the Presbytery Moderator after the safety of the child, children, or youth is assured.

Staff or volunteers caring for or supervising children or youth at Presbytery Events are prohibited from engaging in the following behaviors at all times:

1. Display affection toward a child in privacy.
2. Use profanity or tell off-color jokes.
3. Discuss sexual encounters with or around children or in any way involve children in the staff or volunteer's personal problems or issues.
4. Date or become romantically involved with children.
5. Use or be under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs in the presence of children.
6. Possess obscene or sexually oriented materials, including printed or online pornography, on property during a Presbytery Event.
7. Have secrets with children.
8. Stare at or comment on children's bodies.
9. Engage in inappropriate electronic communication with children under care during or after an Event, including texts, instant messages, email, or use of social networking sites, or engage in inappropriate taking or sharing of photographs.
10. Work one-on-one with children in a private setting.
11. Abuse children in any way including (but not limited to) the following:
 - a. Physical abuse: hit, spank, shake, slap, unnecessarily restrain
 - b. Verbal abuse: degrade, threaten, curse
 - c. Sexual abuse: inappropriately touch, expose oneself, engage in sexually oriented conversations, or interact with children or youth in any way that is sexually stimulating, emotionally demeaning, or exploitative

- d. Sexual activity: engage in sexual advances or sexual activity of any kind between any adult and a child, or permit sexual advances or sexual activity of any kind between an older child and a younger child
- e. Mental or emotional abuse: shame, humiliate, act cruelly
- f. Neglect: withhold food, water, or shelter, or fail to provide adequate supervision
- g. Permit children to engage in the following: Hazing, bullying, derogatory name-calling, games of Truth or Dare, ridicule or humiliation, or sexual activity
- h. Manipulate or exploit a child in any way.
- i. Carry any type of weapon on property where a presbytery Event is occurring.

Section 8.11 Interactions

Some forms of personal interaction with children during presbytery-sponsored events are certainly appropriate, but they must be within boundaries that protect children and those caring for them. Here are some examples of appropriate and inappropriate behaviors:

1. Approval and Affection: In providing approval or affection, the following guidelines apply:

Appropriate Physical Interactions	Inappropriate Physical Interactions
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Side hugs • Shoulder-to-shoulder or “temple” hugs • Pats on the shoulder or back • Handshakes • High-fives and hand slapping • Verbal praise • Pats on the head when culturally appropriate • Touching hands, shoulders, and arms • Arms around shoulders • Holding hands (with young children in escorting situations) These may be inappropriate if unwanted by the child or the employee or volunteer.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Full-frontal hugs • Kisses • Showing affection in isolated area • Lap sitting • Wrestling • Piggyback rides • Tickling • Allowing a child to cling to an employee’s or volunteer’s leg • Any type of massage given by or to a child • Any form of affection that is unwanted by the child or the employee or volunteer • Compliments relating to physique or body development • Touching bottom, chest, or genital areas

2. Verbal Interactions: The manner of speaking with children establishes respect. The following guidelines apply:

Appropriate Verbal Interactions	Inappropriate Verbal Interactions
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Positive reinforcement • Appropriate jokes • Encouragement • Praise 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Name-calling • Discussing sexual encounters or in any way involving children in the personal problems or issues of employees and volunteers • Secrets • Cursing • Off-color or sexual jokes • Shaming • Belittling • Derogatory remarks • Harsh language that may frighten, threaten or humiliate children • Derogatory remarks about the child or his/her family

3. One-on-one interactions: Because most abuse occurs when an adult is alone with a child, private one-on-one meetings with a child are prohibited unless absolutely necessary. When so permitted, the following guidelines shall apply:
- a. When meeting one-on-one with a child, always do so in a public place in full view of others.
 - b. Avoid physical affection that can be misinterpreted. Limit affection to pats on the shoulder, high fives, and handshakes.
 - c. If meeting in a room or office, leave the door open or move to an area that can be easily observed by others passing by.
 - d. Inform other employees and volunteers that you are alone with a child and them to randomly drop in. (Ask to be supervised.)
 - e. Document and immediately report any unusual incidents, including disclosures of abuse or maltreatment, behavior problems and how they were handled, injuries, or any other interactions that might be misinterpreted.

To the extent that any of these guidelines may appear to be in conflict, the spirit of them is that one shall seek to be under the supervision of others while meeting privately with a child.

Section 8.12 Required, Encouraged and Optional Training

The Designated Official (D.O.) in the presbytery may require or encourage any employee or volunteer working with children or youth at an Event to engage in training provided by the Armatas abuse prevention training resources of the Insurance Board, or by another provider approved by the Presbytery.
