

The AC for College Hill Community Church has continued to work with the session and congregation. We are planning to return jurisdiction, and tentatively scheduled a congregational meeting to elect a new session in December, provide additional elder training in January, and, hopefully, install and ordain new elders on by mid-January. We appreciate everyone's support and prayers.

Respectfully submitted,

TE Lucinda Isaacs, Moderator