

Affordable Housing Summit

Saturday, October 25; 8:30 am– 4 pm

Sugar Creek Presbyterian Church

In partnership with

Bellbrook Presbyterian Church

Suggested donation of $10 at the door

Featured Guest Speakers:

Amy Riegel, Executive Director of Coalition on Homelessness and Housing in Ohio.
Senator Michele Reynolds, Chair of the Senate Committee on Housing, local officials and representatives from St. Vincent de Paul Society, and Habitat for Humanity. We will have a panel of those with lived experience with housing Insecurity.

With a focal point on education and practical action steps for individuals and congregations, this event will focus on the Matthew 25 priority of eradicating systemic poverty and align with Jesus' commandment to love our neighbors as ourselves. The event will be open to the presbytery and the public.

Registration details will be available soon.

For more information or to get involved,
contact Neal Duiker at nealwduiker@me.com.

For more information about Matthew 25, visit <https://pcusa.org/matthew25>

MATTHEW 25