NOTES:

1. SECA: Self-Employment Contributions Act (15.3%) this is in place of FICA (Federal Insurance Contributions Act). Pastors are considered self-employed. Employers may elect to pay up to 50% or 7.65%. If an employer pays more than 50%, it must report that as part of the effective salary to the Board of Pensions and it is considered taxable income.
2. Board of Pensions – offers a variety of opportunities for pension, disability, life insurance, vision, dental, health insurance. Please see pensions.org for more information. For installed positions 10% of effective salary for pension/death and disability, and 17.5% for health insurance are required by the Book of Order. For more information, please consult "Understanding Effective Salary" published by the Board of Pensions.
